

Having a media free from monopoly is vital to a democracy. I recommend support/keep any regulation that will block any further ownership by one company in any one area. We already have too much monopoly on the media, and I would support any movement to break up the present monopolies.

MJ